RAIL FORUM LAUNCHES THEIR 'INDUSTRY PRIORITY PILLARS'

With the transition to Great British Railways (GBR) progressing, Rail Forum has evaluated how it will support its members during a time of significant change for the industry.

Rail Forum's activities moving forward will focus around 6 pillars that reflect the industries key priorities during the transition to GBR. These six pillars reflect both the challenges and opportunities ahead, as well as the areas where future investment will be directed.

Rail Forum will continue to bring members, government and industry leaders together around these priorities, helping ensure the expertise, innovation and capability of the supply chain play their full part in delivering a better railway.

During the closing weeks of the 2026 calendar year, Rail Forum welcomes expressions of interest from Premium and Patron members interested in featuring in a podcast episode focused on one of the six key industry pillars. Members can do so via the Rail Forum Podcast page: https://www.railforum.uk/podcast/
